Dear Max, Jane and Jerry: We are having a very pleasant vacation in this city. It is like being in a different country, except that the people are mostly northerners. The architecture is largely Spanish and the buildings so bright in color - white, light tan, pink of various shades, etc., with red tops and green roofs. The people dress in light and bright colors too, to match the climate and bright buildings. I'll see again I'll know better what clothes to bring. We will leave for home tomorrow and will be there on Friday - then work on Monday. Hope we see you soon.

Love, Mary & Allan & Jean
